PROFILE

I am currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Information & Communication Engineering at Daffodil International University. My passion for technology and problem-solving drives me to explore the ever-evolving field of web development.

With a strong foundation in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React.js, Node.js, Express.js, and MongoDB, I have successfully developed several projects, including Chill Gamer, Discount Pro, Gadget Heaven, and a Pet Adoption website. These projects reflect my ability to create dynamic, user-friendly web applications.
